

PRESS RELEASE:

Date of Release:

04/18/2023

BLF Press Celebrates Nine Years with New Anthology

Inspired by a deep longing for writing that embodies the vivacity of Blackness and Black life, Black Joy Unbound is a multi-genre collection that encompasses a broad spectrum of literary writing on Black joy.

Contributors:

Àjọkẹ Bòdúndé
Akua Lezli Hope
Ashia Ajani
Audrey Williams
Azaria Brown
doris diosa davenport
Elizabeth Mudenyó
Elvis Alves
Esperanza Cintrón
Jasminum McMullen
Jeanine DeHoney
Keshia-Gaye Anderson
Kwame Daniels
Laura Doyle Péan

Marlee Alcina Miller
Patrick Sylvain
Penny Mickelbury
Regina YC Garcia
Regina Jamison
Renée Bess
Shawn Williams
Sienna L.M.
Taylor King
Taylor McKinnon
Tiffany Smalls
Triston Dabney
Whitney French
Yeva Johnson

About the Editors:

Stephanie Andrea Allen, Ph.D., is an interdisciplinary humanities scholar, creative writer, cultural critic, and Assistant Professor of Gender Studies at Indiana University. Dr. Allen is also Publisher and Editor-in-Chief at BLF Press, and co-editor of Serendipity Literary Magazine. Her creative work can be found in various online and print publications, including The Black Femme Collective, Mom Egg Review, *Star*Line*, Inkwell Black, Big Echo: Critical Science Fiction Magazine, Sinister Wisdom, and in her two short story collections, A Failure to Communicate and How to Dispatch a Human: Stories and Suggestions. Connect with her on Twitter @S_Andrea_Allen and on Instagram @stephanie.andrea.allen.

Lauren Cherelle is the Managing Editor and Creative Director of BLF Press. She's a fiction editor, graphic designer and digital marketer with an MBA from the University of Tennessee and writing certifications from the University of Louisville. Her creative work reflects the lives of Southern Black girls and women. Her most recent writing was published in Sinister Wisdom 122: Writing Communities and Black from the Future: A Collection of Black Speculative Writing. Join Lauren on Twitter and Instagram: @laurencre8s.

BLACK
JOY
UNBOUND
An Anthology

Edited by STEPHANIE ANDREA ALLEN and LAUREN CHERELLE

Specifications:

Black Joy Unbound: An Anthology

Release Date: September 5, 2023

Multigenre: 5x7 in | 175 pages est. | $22.95

Distributed by Ingram